INDIE SUMMER BACK SOON

The indie rock shows at the Sun Bar are due to kick off soon with a line up of Leicester's coolest indie bands.

The Indie Summer season of live band performances from some of Leicester's finest rock bands has had to be suspended because of road works in Churchgate.

The disruption caused by the resurfacing of Churchgate has thwarted attempts to get the season underway.

But the roadies have made good progress and at least one part of Churchgate is now accessible.
